Added ballot brings 5-5 tie

Union asks for new vote

By DARLENE STINSON

CANTON—The union status of the township's clerical workers remains uncertain, despite a tie vote on membership in the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME).

The union has filed a complaint with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission (MERC), charging the township with a violation of MERC rules and requesting a new election.

Joseph Bixler, chief administrative law judge for MERC, said a hearing soon will be scheduled before a state administrative law judge. MERC will decide the issue after hearing arguments from both sides.

ACCORDING TO union organizer Joseph R. McManus, the township failed to mail the union the names and ad-resses of township employees seven days before the election, as stipulated by state law.

Township Treasurer Carl Parsell says the township did mail the list.

"The list of employees was sent to MERC and the union," Parsell said. "We have a copy of it in our office. The list was sent in ample time. I guess we should have sent it by registered mail."

"We even went further than that," Parsell continued. "We allowed the union to have a meeting on township property that we didn't have to do. We did not try to hide any employee."

The list is required by state law to give the union opportunity to talk with employees, Bixler said.

McManus says the list still has not arrived at AFSCME's office.

"If they did mail the list, this office has never received it," McManus said. "That's a direct violation of Michigan Employment Relations Commission rules and regulations. The law is very clear."

IF MERC rules against a new election, no union activity can take place in the township for a 12-month period.

AFSCME, however, has one last card it could decide to play.

The ballot of Pam Phillips, Supervisor Robert Greenstein's secretary, has never been opened because of a union challenge. The union maintains Mrs. Phillips serves in a supervisory capacity, although the township says she is a regular office employee.

If the union decides to open Mrs. Phillips' ballot, the tie would be broken and the issue of union membership decided.

"That is not an issue at this time," McManus said of the ballot opening question. "It depends on whether we get another election. I don't know what we'd do at this particular time."

MERC's challenge of another township employee's right to participate in the union election was relieved last week, when MERC opened the part-time worker's ballot. Her vote was in favor of union membership and brought the office workers' original 5-4 vote against union membership to a tie.

MERC had maintained that the part-time worker's name was not on the township's list of paid employees but later admitted its error.

Members of the township building department voted 4-2 on April 23 in favor of AFSCME membership. Clerical workers voted 5-4 against union membership, but two ballots were not tallied at that time.

Bicentennial ideas sought

"...Government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth."

Those were words of Abraham Lincoln when he delivered his famous Gettysburg Address.

Although the words were uttered more than 100 years ago, they aptly reflect the spirit of the Community Bicentennial Commission and the country's 200-year history which it is trying to express.

The Community Bicentennial Commission, composed of representatives from local businesses, the Plymouth Community School District, the City of Plymouth and Plymouth and Canton townships, will meet next Wednesday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. in West Middle School's multi-purpose room 44401 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

CHAIRPERSON Elizabeth Folger hopes all persons interested in the bicentennial will attend, so celebrations will reflect efforts and ideas of and for all the people.

"I do feel the bicentennial should be something that each person in the community can identify with," Mrs. Folger said. The more involvement, the better. I think it just makes good citizens."

Bicentennial commission members will relate plans already endorsed by the commission as well as those on the drawing board to new bicentennial participants at next week's meeting.

New members, Mrs. Folger said, will be asked to join one of three committees, organized under Michigan bicentennial guidelines:

- The heritage committee, chaired by Earl Gibson, to formulate projects focusing on the past.

- The festival committee, chaired by Frank Briggs, to organize bicentennial parades and festivals.

- The horizons committee, chaired by Brian Kilstom, to outline bicentennial projects of a lasting nature or those focusing on the future.

"We're hoping these committees will grow to include as many as 200 people," Mrs. Folger said. "The committees will be the backbone of the bicentennial celebrations."

To further community involvement and interest in the bicentennial, Mrs. Folger and other commission members hope to open a bicentennial headquarters, where area residents can drop in to share ideas or perform an hour's work on a project.

Among projects already endorsed by the Community Bicentennial Commission are the publication of Sam Hudson's book, relating the history of Plymouth; the purchase of 1776 style uniforms for the Plymouth Fire and Drum Corps; a videotape of local history, produced by the American Association of University Women; and a taped oral history for the library.

The Community Bicentennial Commission, Mrs. Folger said, hopes to start a ledger of all bicentennial projects for coordination purposes.

Petitions are circulated

Airport opposition grows in city

Opposition to the possible purchase and expansion of Mettetal Airport by Canton Township is growing.

The drive to prevent the township from buying the facility started seriously several weeks ago when residents from Pickwick Village and Farms subdivisions began circulating petitions and flyers.

That opposition has since spread to the city of Plymouth. "This is a city of homes," said Dr. Ralph Atchley of 480 Auburn Street. "That's what it says on the city seal. We don't care to have a large airport near the center of a city that is supposed to be a city of homes."

Atchley circulated a petition in the city and has already received 50 signatures. "I just don't believe the airport should be expanded. It will mean bigger planes landing there, more air traffic. It will increase noise, and increase the hazard of crashes," commented the Plymouth resident.

HE ADDED, "Why are there all these feasibility studies? They had one in 1969 and this last one cost the taxpayer $5,000. I can't see why they want another, especially when there are even more homes near the airport in Canton now."

Canton officials have been interested in the airport for several years and six months ago commissioned the consulting firm of R. Dixon Speas Associates to do a feasibility study. Cost of the analysis was $10,000, and was split evenly between the township and the federal government.

The results of the report arrived about a month ago, and more copies were printed to allow concerned residents to read the results of the study.

A public hearing to discuss those results has been set for May 28, at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth-Canton High School auditorium.

"The airport may be an asset to the township," said clerk John Flodin, "we don't know. That's one of the reasons we have scheduled the hearing. One thing is certain, we should have a big turnout. That's why we have moved the hearing to the high school."

Township officials have been non-committal about the airport. "It's hard to make a determination about Mettetal right now," said Supervisor Robert Greenstein. "We have completely open minds about it. We'll wait for the public hearing. I hope we get a lot of input there—the more the better."

WHILE HOMEOWNERS have been busy circulating petitions, pilots and businessmen who use the airport have been preparing for the hearing. Ken Spencer, a design executive at Ford Motor Company said, "The airport is an important part of the community. You'd be amazed how many times it"

THE JOB of township clerk seems to be getting more involved day by day. John Flodin spent last Friday letting his farming instincts get the better of him as he plowed a sizable portion of the 40 acres at Warren and Lilley the township has for the garden program. The program, scheduled to be well under way by now, has suffered because the ground has been too wet to plow. Plots available last week went like hotcakes, according to township recreation director Brenda Pollock. All 120 were gone in 45 minutes. The rest of the 1,000, 25 by 50 foot plots will be available for distribution this Wednesday May 21. (Staff photo by Richard Gold)

'Soapy' is featured speaker

PLYMOUTH—G. Mennen Williams, Michigan State Supreme Court Justice and former governor of Michigan, will be the guest speaker at Plymouth's Memorial Day observance Monday, May 26.

The event, which starts 10:30 a.m., will have as master of ceremonies, Fred Delano, an editor of the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

The parade will assemble behind Central Middle School at 9:30 a.m. It will proceed south on Main street, left to Ann Arbor Trail and then into Kellogg Park.

On Sunday, May 25, Memorial Day church services will be held at the Plymouth Wesleyan Church, 42290 Five Mile beginning at 11 a.m.

Music in the parade will be presented by the Central and West middle school bands and the Centennial Park Marching Band. Vito Simonetti, a member of the American Legion for over 50 years, will serve as honorary parade marshal.

Gerald Olson, of American Legion Post 391, will be parade marshal. Other events during the Memorial Day ceremony will include the reciting of the pledge of allegiance, led by Plymouth Mayor Beverly McAninch and Plymouth Township Supervisor, J. D. McLaren.

A wreath, honoring veterans who died in service of their country, will be laid by Cmdr. Bob Finnely of American Legion Post 391 and Cmdr.

Gary Kubik, of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6695.

The Plymouth High School Band, directed by James R. Griffith, will play the national anthem. "America" will be sung by the Middle Central School choir.

Bugler for the ceremonies will be Harry Krumm, of VFW Post 6695.

gained a notch last week in southeastern Michigan regional councils. The Council on Regional Development (CORD) drew the C&O Railroad tracks which run between Schoolcraft and Plymouth roads into the proposed 1990 transportation plan of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. CORD is a subordinate unit of SEMCOG.

It was a modest victory for State Sen. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth), whose 14th District includes Redford Township, Livonia and Plymouth; Schoolcraft College trustee Arch Valier, a SEMCOG delegate; and Livonia Mayor Edward H. McNamara. All had protested the original version of the 1990 transportation plan because the Schoolcraft freeway was shown with only an express bus line rather than a rapid rail transit line.

TWO MORE steps must follow the CORD group's action before the plan is official.

First, the SEMCOG executive committee will devote a special meeting June 6 to the plan.

Second, the SEMCOG general assembly—in which all 100 member governments participate—will have the final decision at its June 26 quarterly meeting on the Mercy College campus in Detroit.

Purpose of the regional transportation plan is to give counties, local units, state and federal highway and transit authorities a guide for the forthcoming decades. Regional planning was first required under a 1964 federal aid law.

DAVID SHEPHERD, CORD chairman, said his group of political leaders and technical experts made some 70 modifications to the proposed 1990 plan, only a few of which could be called major.

In the western Wayne County case, he said, "We are adding all railroad lines presently carrying passengers, particularly the C&O Railroad as it goes through Redford, Livonia and Plymouth."

"We were responding to a considerable amount of local interest in having rail service out there," said Shepherd, who is also Oak Park mayor and a SEMCOG vice chairman.

Asked precisely how the CORD action improved the chances for rapid rail transit, Shepherd said it indicated "more thorough study should be made before anything is done out there. The study could show either that passenger rail is needed or it isn't."

The studying agency could be either SEMCOG, the state, the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority or some combination.

SEVERAL OTHER major modifications of the original 1990 plan were made by CORD.

M-59, a state highway which runs through the middle of Macomb, Oakland and Livingston counties, was downgraded in its Livingston sector. West of US-23 to I-96, the M-59 route is now shown as a freeway "corridor under study" rather than as a freeway corridor. East of US-23 to Pontiac, however, it will continue to have freeway corridor status, Shepherd said.

And the controversial Northwestern Highway freeway plan in West Bloomfield Township through the Oakland County lakes area was reduced also to "corridor under study" status, making the possibility of federal funds for construction more remote.

6 Mile, Cherry Hill will be widened

LANSING — Bids will be taken this month in Lansing by the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation on projects to widen Six Mile in Livonia and Cherry Hill in Westland and Garden City.

The state plans to reconstruct and widen 1.6 miles of Six Mile at an estimated cost of $2.1 million. The reconstruction and widening of two miles of Cherry Hill is expected to cost $2.7 million.

The two miles of Cherry Hill will be widened from two to five lanes from Wayne Road east to Merriman. It is expected to be completed in October 1976.

Six Mile is to be widened from two to five lanes from 670 feet west of Levan Road east to 245 feet west of Farmington Road. Completion date is set at June 1976.

Bids for these and other projects in the state will be opened May 21.

The largest scheduled project, estimated at almost $10 million, is to widen 2.2 miles of I-94 between US-23 and US-12 west of Ypsilanti and several related sub-projects.

Utility investigation hearing is Tuesday

A Special House Committee investigating the Michigan Public Service Commission's (MPSC) regulation of utility rates will hold its first public hearing Tuesday, May 20.

It will begin at 7 p.m. in Room 514 of the Veterans Memorial Building, 151 West Jefferson, Detroit. Committee chairman is State Rep. Howard Wolpe (D-Kalamazoo).

The hearing is being held at night to allow as much participation as possible by the general public.

Wolpe says a major purpose of the committee is to determine whether utility rates are being adequately regulated by the MPSC.

He said the committee hopes to hear from residents and businessmen in the area on how the recent large utility rate increases have affected them.

East of Inkster Road, however, Northwestern will continue to have freeway corridor status, and Shepherd said severe traffic problems make freeway status a necessity.

In the area around Metropolitan Airport, the Wayne County Road Commission lost its bid to win "regional major" status for three roads, including Middle Belt. An example of a regional major would be Eight Mile Road east of Grand River—divided, eight lanes, limited access and limited crossovers.

RONALD COWDEN

Legislators back Cowden

Ronald Cowden, incumbent Schoolcraft College trustee, has gained re-election endorsements from some area legislators.

Cowden, seeking re-election June 9, has received support from U.S. Rep. Marvin L. Esch (R-Ann Arbor), State Sen. Carl Pursell (R-Plymouth), State Rep. John Markes (D-Westland), and State Rep. Robert Geake (R-Northville).

The Schoolcraft district includes the Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville school districts. Esch's district includes Livonia and Plymouth; Pursell's Livonia, Plymouth and Redford Township; Markes' Westland and part of Livonia; and Geake's Northville and part of Livonia.

Cowden stresses his concern for an ongoing re-evaluation of Schoolcraft's programs to keep them relevant to students' academic and vocational needs.

Cowden is especially supportive of the Wayne State-Schoolcraft consortium providing the college with use of the Wayne County Child Development Center and cooperative academic programs with WSU.

"The agreement will provide more facilities for Schoolcraft, and more academic and faculty resources for our students," says Cowden.

Recreation authority takes beginning steps

A new recreation authority has taken the first staggering steps toward unifying the recreational programs of four municipalities and a school district.

The new authority, composed of representatives from the Plymouth Community School District, the City of Plymouth and Plymouth, Canton and Superior townships, met for the first time last Wednesday to organize and exchange recreational ideas.

Although little action was taken, members outlined the recreational needs of the community the new authority could meet.

PLYMOUTH Township Trustee Gerald Burke volunteered to act as chairman of the new group, and Canton Township Trustee Brian Schwall volunteered for the secretary position.

Other members of the new authority are Plymouth City Commissioner Joseph Bida, Plymouth Community School Board Treasurer Tom Yack, and Kay Williams, secretary of Superior Township's Parks and Recreation Commission.

The intergovernmental council, which spearheaded attempts to resurrect last year's defunct recreation authority, has charged the new group with the implementation of a pilot recreation program and the investigation of a long-range plan.

The authority, as envisioned by intergovernmental representatives, will open all facilities and programs to the general public, regardless of city and township boundaries.

THE ALL-IMPORTANT question, "Where do we begin?" plagued members of the new authority at last week's meeting.

Plymouth Township Trustee Richard Gornick, a member of the intergovernmental council charged with organizing the new group suggested a possible starting point—a list of existing recreational facilities and recreational needs.

Members pointed to the city's Cultural Center and ice rink, Plymouth Township's recreational site and golf course near Ann Arbor Trail and McClumpha, Canton Township's recently-purchased recreation site on Cherry Hill, the school district's facilities for arts and crafts classes and Superior Township's parks.

Burke noted the possible construction of a swimming pool on Plymouth Township's recreation site. The pool, if constructed, could be open to all community residents.

"OUR RECREATION advisory committee has talked about that," Burke said. "There's no 50-meter pool in the area now except at Schoolcraft College. No place has a 10-meter tower."

Added Bida, "I think that's the biggest need we have right now."

Ms. Williams noted the need for bicycle paths.

"If we work as a group, we could get paths that go somewhere," she said.

Bida pointed to a 43-acre well site, which the city owns on Beck Road. The site could be used as a rifle range, he said, or fishing holes or nature trails could be constructed.

School classrooms could be utilized for arts and crafts sessions during evening hours or summer months, Yack pointed out.

"All that money is tied up in facilities," Yack said, "and they're not being used to the utmost. That money is going to be harder and harder to get. I think we have to show the citizens that we're exploring every method to reduce costs."

TENNIS COURTS, an indoor track, an indoor rifle range, a multi-purpose recreational building and a recreational area for mini-bikes were among other needs authority members outlined.

"But we're talking big money," Schwall complained.

Gornick admitted, "We can't do all these things. This is just brainstorming. If you're going to suggest a pilot recreational program, you have to identify the community's needs."

The intergovernmental council, which spearheaded formation of the new group, has not ironed out plans for financial cooperation.

Members agreed to bring a list of their community's existing facilities to the next scheduled meeting on June 11. Burke agreed to bring a results of a survey, conducted in Plymouth Township, of residents' recreational wants.

The new organization is not the area's first recreation authority.

A PROPOSED recreational authority, that would have included the City of Plymouth, the Plymouth Community School District and Plymouth and Canton townships, went awry in 1973, after the Plymouth City Commission opted out of the proposed contract.

"I think the city felt elected officials should have more rights on a committee like that," said Bida. "There was a feeling in the city that other groups were trying to take the Cultural Center away from us. It's a bonded issue, and we have to control it."

"We're interested in cooperation with everyone," Bida added. "This has got to be a new committee with positive thinking. Let's forget about what happened in the past."

bers will be joined by the other 63 members of the band and band director Mike DiCuirci for an hour of music on the Mall in the state's capital. (Staff photo by Maurie Walker)

Central band set to perform in Lansing

PLYMOUTH—Band honors seem almost commonplace around Plymouth with news that the Central Middle School Band will be traveling to Lansing on May 22 for Michigan Week celebrations.

Selected from junior and senior high school bands throughout the state, Central's band will be one of 10 bands to perform in the state capital's mall during the week.

Band director Mike DiCuirci said the band was selected on the basis of an audition tape sent from work performed during state band festival competition and will be only one of a few middle school bands performing.

The band will leave Thursday morning and perform on the Mall from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The concert will be followed by a tour of the capitol building and the Michigan State University Historical Museum.

The one-hour concert by the 68 Central Band members will feature 15 tunes including "Trumpets of Splendor March" by Cavas, "American Civil War Fantasy" by Bilik, Highlights from "Oliver" by Bart, and "Minnesota March" by Sousa.

Festival board readies applications

PLYMOUTH—Fans of the chicken barbecue or the fish fry will be happy to know that plans are under way for this year's Plymouth Community Fall Festival.

Slated for the weekend of Sept. 4-7, this year's 20th annual Fall Festival promises to be "even better than last year," according to Festival Manager Ed Page.

"We'll have 32 booths available this year for non-profit community groups," Page explained, "and the layout will be expanded allowing for larger booth space." Plans call for booths to be located both north and south of Penniman along Main Street.

PAGE SAID inquiries have been coming in since January from arts and crafts groups and prospective participants for the Antique Mart.

Letters were recently sent to participants of last year's festival inviting them to participate again.

Deadline for space reservations has been set at July 30, but booth space will be awarded on a "first-come" basis beginning June 11.

Added attractions at this year's festival will be the visit of some 500 families who are members of the Air-Stream Travel Trailer Club. The groups will be hosting a round-up that weekend on the athletic field of East Middle School.

The festival office this year will be housed in a motor home on the site and Page and co-chairman Carl Glass will carry walkie-talkies to improve coordination of the festival. With a hook-up with the Plymouth Police Department, safety will also be improved.

A MAJOR CHANGE for this year's participant will be the handling of state sales tax.

In the past the tax was paid directly to the Fall Festival Board and then forwarded to the state. This year, participating groups will be responsible for their own sales tax liability.

Applications at $15, along with proof of liability insurance, are available through Page in the office of pupil personnel services at Central Middle School.

"I'd like to stress the importance of groups getting their applications in as soon as possible," Page said.

Airport opposition

He added, "Once the people lose this airport, they won't be able to get another. It is already integrated into the whole airspace network of the Detroit area. People don't realize it's almost impossible to get land zoned for airport use. If Mettetal goes, this community has lost it, it's gone."

Atchley, like other concerned homeowners commented, "I don't see why they can't use Willow Run. Why don't they get in their cars and drive over there. It's only 40 minutes away."

Kids treated to animal show

Neighs and moos and the giggles of children filled the air at Our Lady of Providence School recently, when members of the Plymouth Towne and Country 4-H Club offered the students a treat.

The developmentally disabled students, ranging in age from six to 21, munched on cookies and gathered around the three horses, pony, a litter of five-week-old rabbits, a prize-winning angora rabbit, a Holstein cow and an Angus steer—all brought by 4-H Club members for the occasion.

Milking, grooming and riding demonstrations added an extra treat to the warm, fun-filled day.

The occasion was a first for students and 4-H Club members.

"The kids had a really good time," said Sister Judy, a staff member at the school. "Many had never been close to an animal before. It was a good learning experience. A lot of the kids wrote experience stories and drew pictures of the animals afterwards.

"Some kids couldn't make it, because they were participating in the special olympics," she added. "We would welcome other groups, and the kids would enjoy other demonstrations."

About 15 4-H Club members participated in the event organized by Jane Stuart, a junior at Plymouth Canton High School.

Township parcel offered for sale

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP The township's former well site on Northville Road may end up on the bidding block.

The board of trustees unanimously agreed last week to appraise the property and offer it for sale.

Before advertising for bids, township officials must determine how much of the 1.3-acre site is still township property. The Michigan State Highway Department has taken a small section of the land for construction of the Schoolcraft expressway.

Township Clerk Helen Richardson said two parties already have offered to purchase the land. The Deane Baker Co., owner of the Plymouth Hilton Inn, wants the land to extend the hotel's parking lot. William McAllister, whose father sold the land to the township, wants to repurchase the site.

According to state law, a township cannot sell land without a vote of the people.

Correction

PLYMOUTH—Three city firefighters have recently completed classes in the "Instructor's Institute" offered by Madonna College.

Charles Groth, Alan A. Matthews, and John I. Morrissey are members of the city of Plymouth Fire Department and not the Plymouth Township Fire Department as reported on May 15.

Dog licenses available

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP—Township residents are urged to purchase dog licenses before June 1, when the price of the licenses increases from $3 to $5.

Residents should bring their dog's valid rabies certificate when purchasing the license.

Township officials estimate only half of the dog owners in the township have purchased, 1975 licenses.

According to the township's dog ordinance, all dogs must be tied or kept in a fenced area. Excessive barking is prohibited.

Dogs picked up by the township dog warden will be impounded at the Parkway Veterinary Clinic, 41385 Wilcox. Dogs not claimed within 72 hours will be destroyed or sold.

School sets meals for senior citizens

PLYMOUTH—Beginning today, senior citizens in the Plymouth Community School District may put away their lunch-time cooking utensils and savor inexpensive, well-balanced meals at Central Middle School, located at Church and Main in downtown Plymouth.

The pilot program will run Monday through Friday from 11:50 a.m. to 1 p.m. through June 25 and is open to all senior citizens in the Plymouth Community School District.

Cost of the hot type-A lunch, which includes nutritious food from all four basic food groups, is 80 cents. The same luncheon is served to students and faculty members.

Three circular tables in the front of the cafeteria have been reserved for senior citizens, who must provide their own transportation to the school.

"OUR SCHOOL is located in the center of the town, and there are a number of retired persons close by," said assistant principal Brian Kidston. "Sometimes people living by themselves don't prepare a well-balanced meal."

The program, Kidston maintains, will benefit students and senior citizens alike and improve communications between the two age groups.

"Many of the students don't have contact with people of this age," said Kidston. "We expect this to give them a chance to converse with them. We're also aware that many adults sometimes don't understand what's going on in the school. This will make them aware."

A GROUP of four student council representatives will assist senior citizens each day, Kidston said. The school's administration has encouraged students to mix with the older generation.

Kidston credits principal Gus Gorguza for initiation of the pilot program. Gorguza learned of a similar program in another school district and organized a committee of school administrators, senior citizens, parents, teachers and cafeteria managers to determine the need of such a program in Plymouth.

The School administration will continue the program next year, Kidston said, if it proves successful. Senior citizens will be asked to fill out information cards for evaluation purposes.

Siefker resigns from planning post

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP—Dale Siefker, a member of Plymouth Township's planning commission since January, 1972, has resigned because of a job transfer to Moline, Ill.

Siefker was first appointed to the planning commission to fill the unexpired term of Harper Stephens. He was reappointed to three-year term in July 1972.

Siefker was elected vice chairman of the commission in January 1974, and reelected in January 1975. During his three-year term, he served as chairman of the highway impact committee and twice formulated the annual budget report.

"Dale has dedicated himself to the development of the Township of Plymouth and its fast growing area," said the board of trustees in a resolution honoring Siefker. "His interest, and constant demand to develop the area in an orderly manner has been evident by his past endeavors."

"As a planning commission member, he has combined perspicacity with selfless dedication and integrity. As a fellow citizen unusually concerned with the problems of his community and the welfare of the people, he has displayed a forthright sense of true responsibility."

Siefker's resignation leaves two vacancies on the nine-member planning commission. Melville Troyer resigned last October, and Supervisor J. D. McLaren has been unable to locate a replacement, according to Mrs. Richardson.

Station plans change

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP—The township's new fire station on Wilcox Road may end up smaller than originally expected.

The board of trustees Tuesday authorized Robert Carrigan of the architectural firm Cummins and Barnard to proceed with the detailed drawing of the station's scaled-down blueprint.

Under the new plan, the station will cost the township an estimated $192,000—a figure close to the budgeted amount.

To cut corners from the cost, Carrigan sliced 1,000 feet from the building's total square footage, which now totals about 4,000 square feet.

The dormitory, originally designed to accommodate six persons, will now accommodate four, and offices for the fire chief, the fire inspector and a secretary have been eliminated from the plan.

'Garaging' addict hooked on house holders' sales

Story: MILLICENT WORREL
Photos: BARBARA MC CLELLAN

Thelma W. put the last dish in the dish washer, turned off the clothes dryer, then rushed up to survey the bedroom scene where five of her six children had created morning havoc as usual.

She had been up since 6 a.m. packing lunches, loading the washer and dusting in between breakfast shifts. It was now 8:30 a.m.

Oh well, she thought, what difference if all the beds weren't made? If she didn't get started on her weekly "garaging" ritual she might miss some good bargains.

So she quickly donned her time-worn uniform, a pair of sturdy slacks and a raincoat (one mustn't look too prosperous), locked the door and rushed to the nearest newspaper stand to buy a copy of the paper.

SHE SLIPPED into an all-night eatery, ordered a cup of coffee and carefully plotted the morning agenda, jotting addresses and routing schedules.

Thelma didn't have much time—her kindergartner would be home by noon—and toting children along to garage sales is foolhardy. She mused that she didn't really "need" anything in particular, but this had always seemed the most propitious time to discover wonderful "buys".

After all, hadn't she been able to accessorize an entire house, thus saving her husband hundreds of dollars by bargaining early?

It so happens that Thelma is clever, she is able to strip, refinish and upholster almost as well as a professional. But, she rationalized, what about all the pieces, like lamps and lovely dishes, that didn't need her guiding hand; they were in perfect condition when she bought them. So the morning treasure hunt started.

THE FIRST sale listed was near her home. She found a miniature oriental, well worn, of course, but after it was cleaned, wouldn't it be engaging as a wall hanging in the den? For a mere $10 she couldn't go too far wrong. Then, over in the corner unobtrusively displayed, she came upon a pair of brass lamps. One was in need of repair but, no matter, her friend Harry could fix it in minutes.

On to the next sale, a little further, but still no hardship. There she found a set of Barvarian china. The owner was moving and didn't want to hassle with the van company. At a mere $1 a piece, now how could she resist?

The next sale sounded too interesting to pass up, even though it was quite a distance, all the way to Plymouth. Four sisters had converged to promote a large scale clearance. Would Thelma have time to make it before no. 6 arrived home from school? She'd try!

The sale turned out to be even more interesting than its ad indicated. Thelma saw the distinct possibilities in a roltop desk. If it were stripped and antiques, wouldn't it be great for Johnnie's bedroom?

WITH SOME help from the sisters, she managed to pack it into the rear of the station wagon ("You must have a station if you're to become a serious garage enthusiast," Thelma believes). Then pack home—but not before she found a rectangular casserole set in silver plate. What a find for the buffet she had planned!

Thelma arrived home just as the bus was unloading her hungry daughter. "What did you do today, Mommy? Oh, it's Thursday. I bet you went garaging."

There are many Thelmas in the suburbs—and the garage scene is being made more often than ever since economy-conscious women are fighting to balance the family budget. Where once the status symbol was a swimming pool, it is now frugality.

ONE SUBURBANITE scored highly when she came upon Madiera napkins at a fraction of their original cost. Another mother of three, all in college, was able to partially furnish two dorms and an apartment with items ranging from bed boards to kooky lamps.

An antiquer who also likes to "junk hunt" claims, however, that a bargain is a bargain only if you need it.

Trends vary and grow proportionately with the amount of general interest. Garaging may be here to stay if the number of sales listed is a barometer. As attics and basements are being stripped, local garages are bulging.

Man in foreground, who would not give his name, said he is addicted to garage sales and stops every morning on the way to work; he was supposed to be at work.

Don Nelson of Birmingham quipped, 'You don't dare smile. They might take the gold out of your teeth.'

She stoops to conquer, searching out a volume.

Garaging enthusiasts, including book collector on right, find what they were looking for, plus surprises.

Mettetal facts must be weighed carefully

Perhaps the hottest issue to come before the new administration in Canton Township is the purchase of Mettetal Airport. It is a topic that has homeowners jumping and pilots and businessmen worried.

On May 28, the township will conduct a public hearing on the matter, and the turnout will probably be sizable, judging from the concern the issue has already generated.

Undoubtedly there will be heated discussions, both in favor and against purchase (and expansion) of the airport.

Arguments are bound to be tinged with emotion and bias because the issue hits so close to home for many residents of the township.

Pilots and businessmen, who use the airport for both pleasure and business, have much at stake, and they can be expected to be vocal.

SOME FACTS on the airport are still to come. The Federal Aviation Agency is currently doing a traffic study on Mettetal, and hopefully the results will be available for the hearing.

One fact is in, and it is important. The airport, as a private facility, is in danger. The owners, faced with rising taxes, cannot afford to operate it much longer. Their competition, municipal airports, do not pay taxes and often receive federal and state aid. The Mettetal brothers, current owners of the airport, say the rapid increase in land values has made their facility inoperable as a private facility.

This would indicate the fate of the airport lies with Canton Township. If the township does not purchase it, it seems unlikely the airport will survive much longer.

Pilots who use the facility claim that if Mettetal fails, it will be gone forever. Getting a new airport, they say, will be next to impossible.

THIS BRINGS us to the crux of the matter. How much does the airport affect the tax base of the area? How much does Mettetal have to do with the economic well being of the Plymouth-Canton community? Does it attract industry, and if so, how much? Does it prevent industry currently located in the area from leaving?

editorial opinion

These are significant issues in light of the rapid growth Canton is experiencing. Rapid development of subdivisions means greater demand for municipal services, and those services have to be supported to some degree by industry. Planners say new homes are barely paying for the services they demand.

We don't know the effect of Mettetal on the Plymouth-Canton area. No doubt it is responsible for noise and homeowner discomfort, problems that would be aggravated should the airport be expanded.

Expansion of the airport seems assured if the facility is purchased by Canton. The financial feasibility study most recently completed by R. Dixon Speas and Associates says the airport fails to meet federal standards to receive federal assistance. Without federal assistance, cost of the airport would virtually double and the township would be unable to purchase it.

THE REPORT, while filled with contingencies, suggests that Canton could buy the airport and make a profit. But homeowners have raised significant questions about the report's validity.

Deciding to purchase the airport or leave it to its uncertain fate is a big responsibility and a decision that will affect the area for years to come.

We hope the township board is able to cut through the emotion that will surely be part of the public hearing. And we hope that when the board does separate the facts from the bias and emotions, it will consider the township as a whole, not just the vested interests of affected homeowners and businessmen.

From our readers A choice we couldn't refuse

Editor:

Your article entitled, "Miller parents grill board again" of Monday, March 5, can be classified with all the other articles written in the paper in reference to 45-15 bused.

Regarding your statement that Mrs. Borowski was not allowed to speak, this is completely in error. She was indeed allowed to speak long enough to demonstrate her inability to handle the position of a school board member.

When an individual in her position can make such irrelevant statements as "I'm sure if you went out and took a survey against taxes you know what the result would be, but that wouldn't solve the problem," we feel that this community is in for more problems. Taxes and 45-15 are not similar. There is no alternative to taxes, plus they must be accepted by all—not an unfortunate few. We feel there are alternatives to this situation, such as portables.

Portables have been successfully used in Taylor to handle overcrowding as stated by Jim Bonner, a principal in Taylor School District.

We were indeed mailed an ambiguous card giving us the option between 45-15 and busing our children to East, Allen, or Fiegel schools. These cards were mailed to us with no reference to specific tracks. Logic and common sense dictates that the tracks were set up in their entirety at the time these cards were mailed out.

It is an insult to our intelligence to try to convince us otherwise. In other words, "We were given a choice we couldn't refuse." It is our understanding that children are already being bused out of Fiegel, thus creating a vicious circle of busing. Now we ask you, is this the best the "intelligentsia" of the Plymouth board of education can do? If so, shame on us for investing such inept people with educational authority over our most prized possessions—our children.

There are many of you in the school district who may read our 45-15 protest and wonder what all the fuss is about. To you we say, attend the meetings. They will prove to be real eye-openers as to the caliber of people who serve on our school board.

She opposes 45-15 program at Miller

Editor:

On May 1, a meeting was held at Miller School regarding implementation of the 45-15 year-round school program starting in July of this year. I was in attendance at the meeting called by the Concerned Parents Group.

School Board Secretary Marcia Borowski was also present and commented on the many petitions and letters that have been presented to the board.

Mrs. Borowski stated that the board was elected to represent all the people in the district, not only the 525 families at Miller School. She also stated that the board acted because they felt the 45-15 program was the best solution to the problems at Miller School.

I too feel that the entire district will probably benefit in the long run.

However, I wonder what contribution the other attendance areas are making to ease a bad situation. What concessions are they making, or will they make, to aid the entire district? Are they experimenting with the quality of their children's education? Are they trying a system that has repeatedly failed and been rejected by other districts because of the financial burdens and the multitude of problems?

Are their children losing the better part of the summer? Are their families being split, due to having children on several different schedules at differing schools? Are they going to have to readjust their lives to accommodate the four 3-week to 38-day breaks during inclement weather periods?

I feel that the people in the Miller attendance area agree on the basic issues: preservation of the neighborhood school and keeping all children in the Miller attendance area at Miller, busing no one.

The disagreement lies in the best way for all concerned to solve the problem. I, for one, don't feel the best way is to implement a program that is totally unacceptable to half the people involved in the Miller experience.

MRS. GERALD UTERMARK
Canton Township

Other airport facts explored

Editor:

Recently, petitions have been circulated in Canton Township pertaining to Mettetal Airport. Accompanying these petitions was a "fact sheet" that contained information supposedly relevant to the purchase of the airport by Canton Township.

Concerned citizens of the area have every right to express their views on this subject, but the group responsible for developing the "fact sheet" and distributing same, has performed a disservice to the airport and to aviation in general. When someone resorts to hysteria, half-truths and outright misinformation to achieve something, I think the record should be set straight.

The so-called facts about aviation safety and the effects of the airport on the adjacent land values are not true. The information on safety can be easily disposed of by facts and statistics easily available from the proper authorities.

The claim of a detrimental environmental impact on the community is also suspect. The quantity of fuel used by aviation is not going to increase due to the expansion of the airport and, it should be noted, aircraft are a substitute for surface travel and are a more energy efficient form of transportation—this can be proven with real facts.

The traffic situation at Joy and Lilley roads is in no way the fault of the airport, but a problem created by the tremendous land development of the area, with a large increase in the number of new homes being built.

The economic information seems to have been developed superficially and completely disagrees with a thorough study done by a professional company proving the expanded airport can be an economic gain for the community.

Those involved with developing and distributing the petitions and fact sheets against further development of Mettetal mean well, I am sure, but I hope they take the time to get at the real facts before any further unnecessary agitation takes place.

I am an aircraft owner and an experienced pilot based at Mettetal and therefore have a vested interest in this situation. I will talk or meet with anyone, be he for or against the airport, and I will be most pleased to discuss the airport and aviation in general. Please feel free to contact me.

She gives wild flowers a quiet wooded haven

A tiny plot of woods in the heart of Livonia is home for more than 40 kinds of wildflowers rarely seen by most city-dwellers and suburbanites.

The plot is one that was saved by Mrs. Calvin Arnett from the bulldozer that was grading land in the new Wood Creek Farms subdivision a decade ago.

Mrs. Arnett also saved from other bulldozers countless trilliums, spring beauties, violets and jack-in-the-pulpits, giving them sanctuary in the shade of her natural garden.

Its quiet spring show is on right now. The marsh marigolds are past their prime, but violets in many colors peek from behind bright green leaves, trilliums bloom in bright variety and spring beauties spread a pinkish blanket across the little woodland.

As summer progresses, there will be different sights—wild asters, Solomon's seal and baneberries.

MARGE ARNETT didn't know a thing about wild flowers when she moved to Livonia, and stumbled into her new interest.

As her family was moving into its new home on Myrna Court, she noticed a little bit of woods hadn't been bulldozed.

"I tied a rope around it and asked the men to leave it alone," she said. "It was mainly the trees I was interested in then, but the next spring I realized it was full of wild flowers."

More building was going on in that subdivision and around Livonia, so Mrs. Arnett figured more rescue work was in order.

In several areas where the bulldozers were due, she was there first with trowel and carton.

"I saved quite a few flowers just by going to spots where I knew there was going to be building. Then people started telling me about wild flowers they had seen, and some started bringing me plants."

"To identify them, I've had to get a lot of books. It's become a big thing for me."

THE VARIETY of flowers that grow in this area has been a never-ending source of amazement to Mrs. Arnett.

Trilliums, for instance, she had always thought were simple white blooms with three petals. Now she knows about red trilliums, too, and pink ones, and red and white types, and frilly blooms and nodding types. "This year's discovery was the painted trillium. I just kept finding new varieties."

And violets in her plot aren't just violet. She has them in several shades of purple as well as pink, white and yellow.

THEN THERE ARE blood root and adder's tongue, rue anemone and tooth wart, squirrel corn and ferns in abundance.

The woods, about 15 by 20 feet in size, has several fine old trees, sugar maples and beeches predominating. There's also a dogwood that blooms every two years.

Every bit of vegetation in the wooded section either was there originally or found in the wild except a Virginia bell plant.

"I bought that last year because I never had seen one and really liked it," Mrs. Arnett said.

THE WOODS BEGIN blooming in March, she said, and the flowers stay until June.

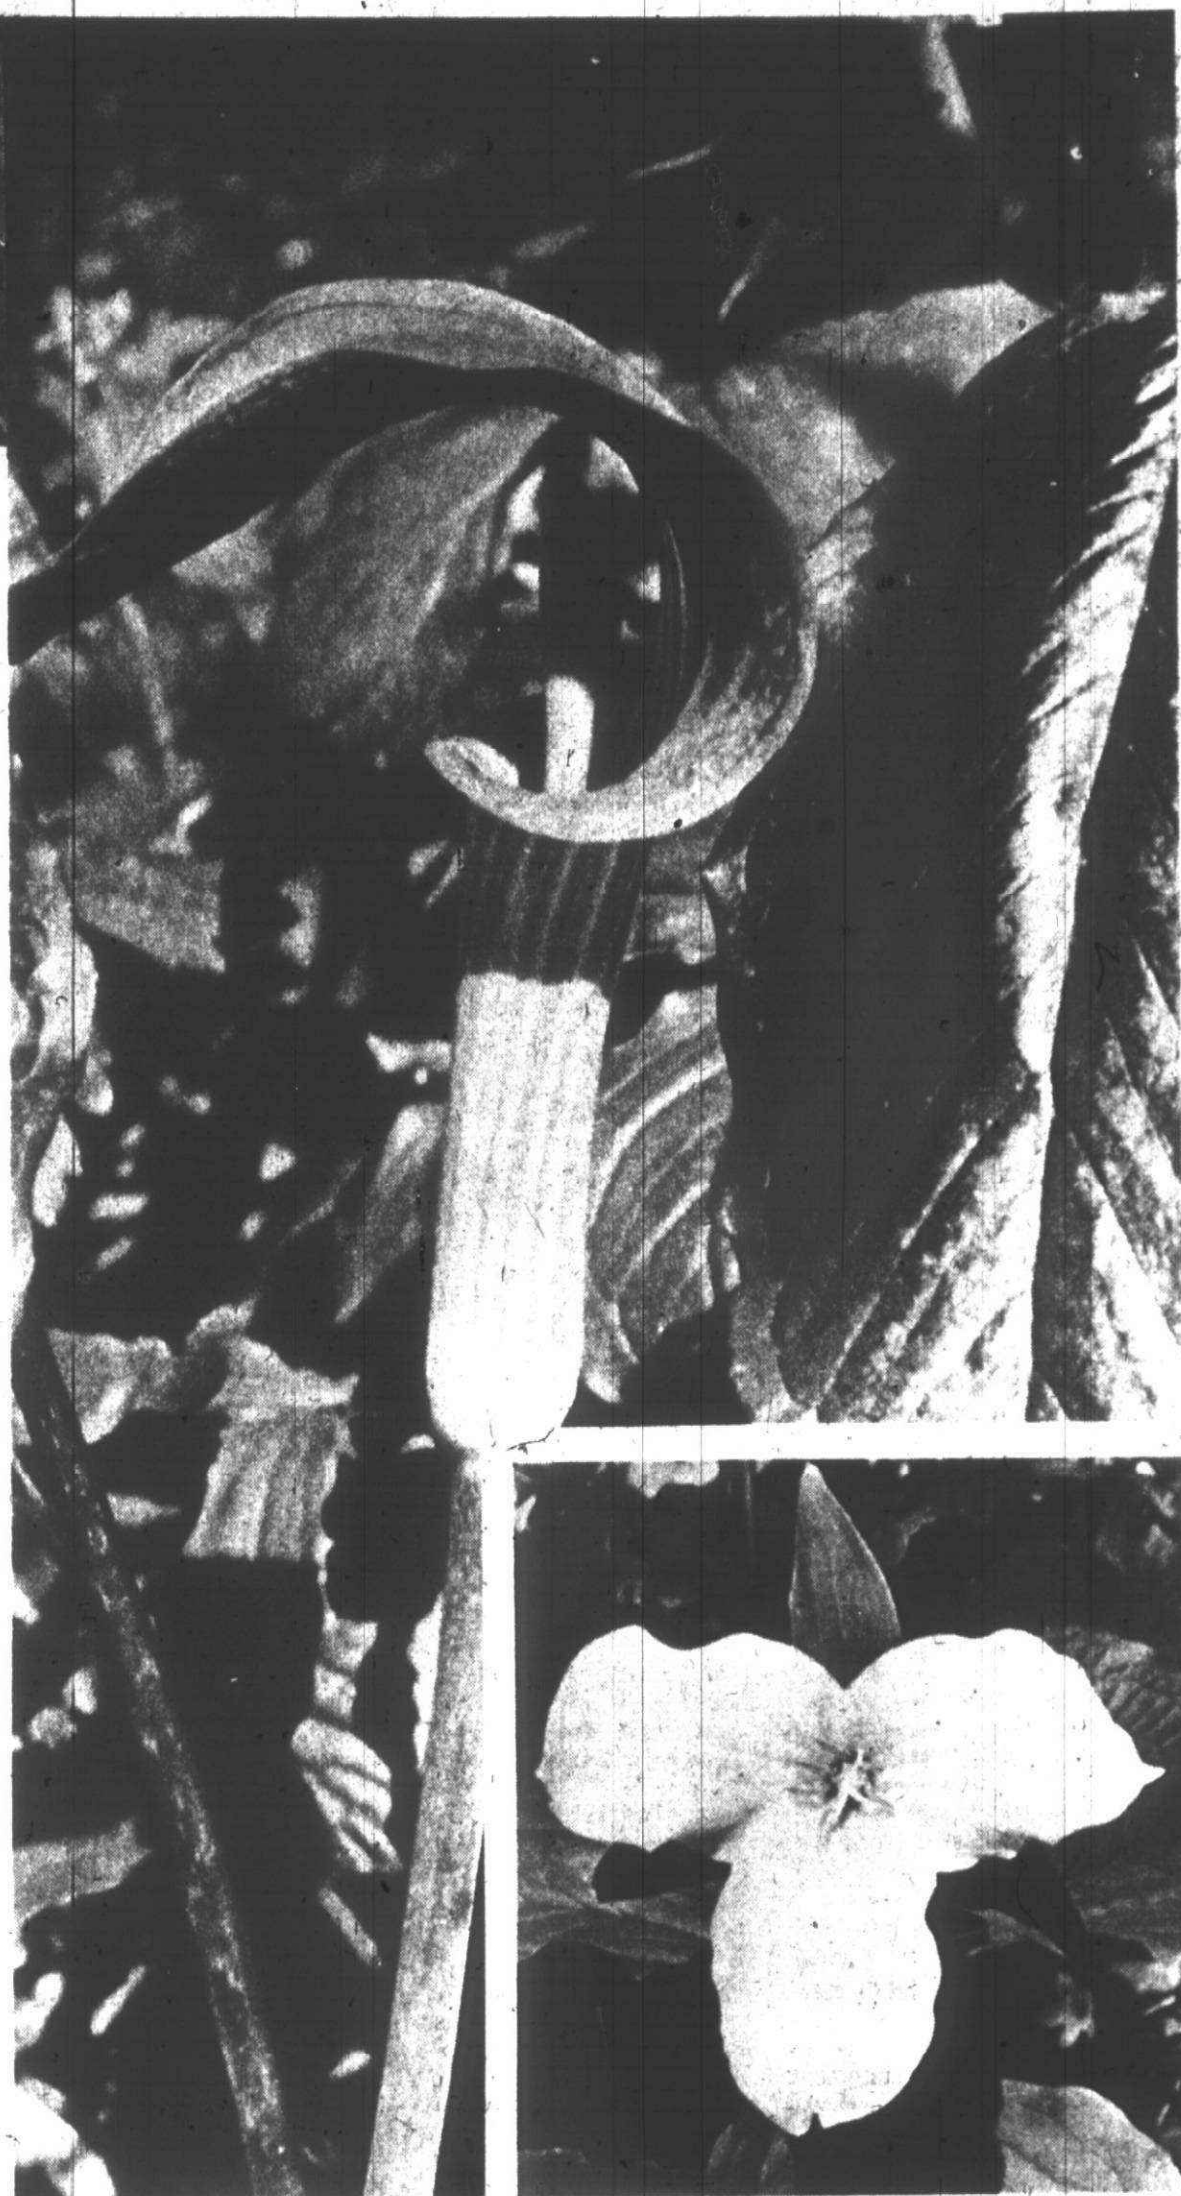

"Then there's a lapse, and late in the summer you get the fall things," she added. One of the most interesting of these is the baneberry, sometimes called doll's eyes because it's white with a black dot.

Mrs. Arnett doesn't do much other gardening. Husband Calvin takes care of the tulips and daffodils and crocuses that brighten the yard in the spring, and by summer there is too much shade for extensive garden plots.

But her little plot can serve this area as a reminder of the natural beauty that once was everywhere. It also shows what one person can do to preserve that beauty.

MARGE ARNETT shows one of the trilliums growing beside her vintage beech tree.

Rescue techniques will be taught

With the intention of training both lay and professional people in saving lives through heart massage and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, the Western Wayne County Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation Committee was recently organized in the western suburbs.

The organization will work in conjunction with the Michigan Heart Association to train everyone in preventing deaths from heart attacks.

Officers of the newly formed organization include Keith McLachlin of Dearborn Heights, chairman; Dolly LaCroix of Northville, co-chairman, and Pat Melville of Livonia, secretary.

The group trains doctors, nurses, firemen, housewives, in fact anyone who wishes to learn, in rescue techniques.

Some groups who have recently availed themselves of instruction are the Rolling Stones camping organization, Boy Scouts, nursing home personnel and police cadets.

Committee members are all currently Michigan Heart Association CPR instructors. Next meeting of the organization is May 21 at 1:30 p.m. in the Northville Residential Training Center at Northville State Hospital.

Anyone interested in instruction in CPR techniques may contact the Michigan Heart Association, 16310 W. Twelve Mile, Southfield.

Redford Union takes Stevenson regional Doug Sweazy is all alone as the Garden City East 'standout' crosses the finish line in the mile run at the Stevenson High School track regional Saturday.

Winners

Opening day of the Livonia Women's Golf League saw the following low net winners: Janet Mayberry, A flight, 35; Lillian McCann, Jane Payette, B flight, tied with 38; Angela Nutter, C flight, 33; Doris Foglia, D flight, 34; Juanita Elmore, E flight, 30; Delores Bresnahan, F flight, 22.

Observer & Eccentric Relays champion Redford Union showed the same depth that won that meet when it took Saturday's Michigan High School Athletic Association Class A regional track meet Saturday at Livonia Stevenson High School.

The Panthers picked up only two firsts but used their depth to take the meet over 18 competing schools. RU had 33 points compared to Westland John Glenn's 28. Stevenson was third with 25 1/2.

Redford Union's only individual first place came in the 440 yard run when Jim Lalonde held on to nip Salem's Mark DeMeritt by one-tenth of a second.

The first three places in each event advance to the track and field finals Saturday May 31 at Flint Northwestern High School.

DeMeritt came back for a first of his own when he blazed the 220 yard dash in 22.4 seconds to win by a neck.

BUT THE TOP individual performance in the meet had to belong to Glenn's Tom Jakubowski. Jakubowski won both the high and low hurdles and finished second in the long jump to qualify in three events.

Livonia Churchill picked up a pair of firsts in the field events. Bill Reardon, one of the top shot putters in the state and a legitimate threat in the finals, easily outdistanced his rivals in that event with an area high of 56 feet. Rick Powers won just as convincingly in the pole vault, going 14 feet—more than a foot better than the nearest competition.

Garden City East's dynamic distance duo of Art Kitz and Doug Sweazy continued to show why they are among the best around.

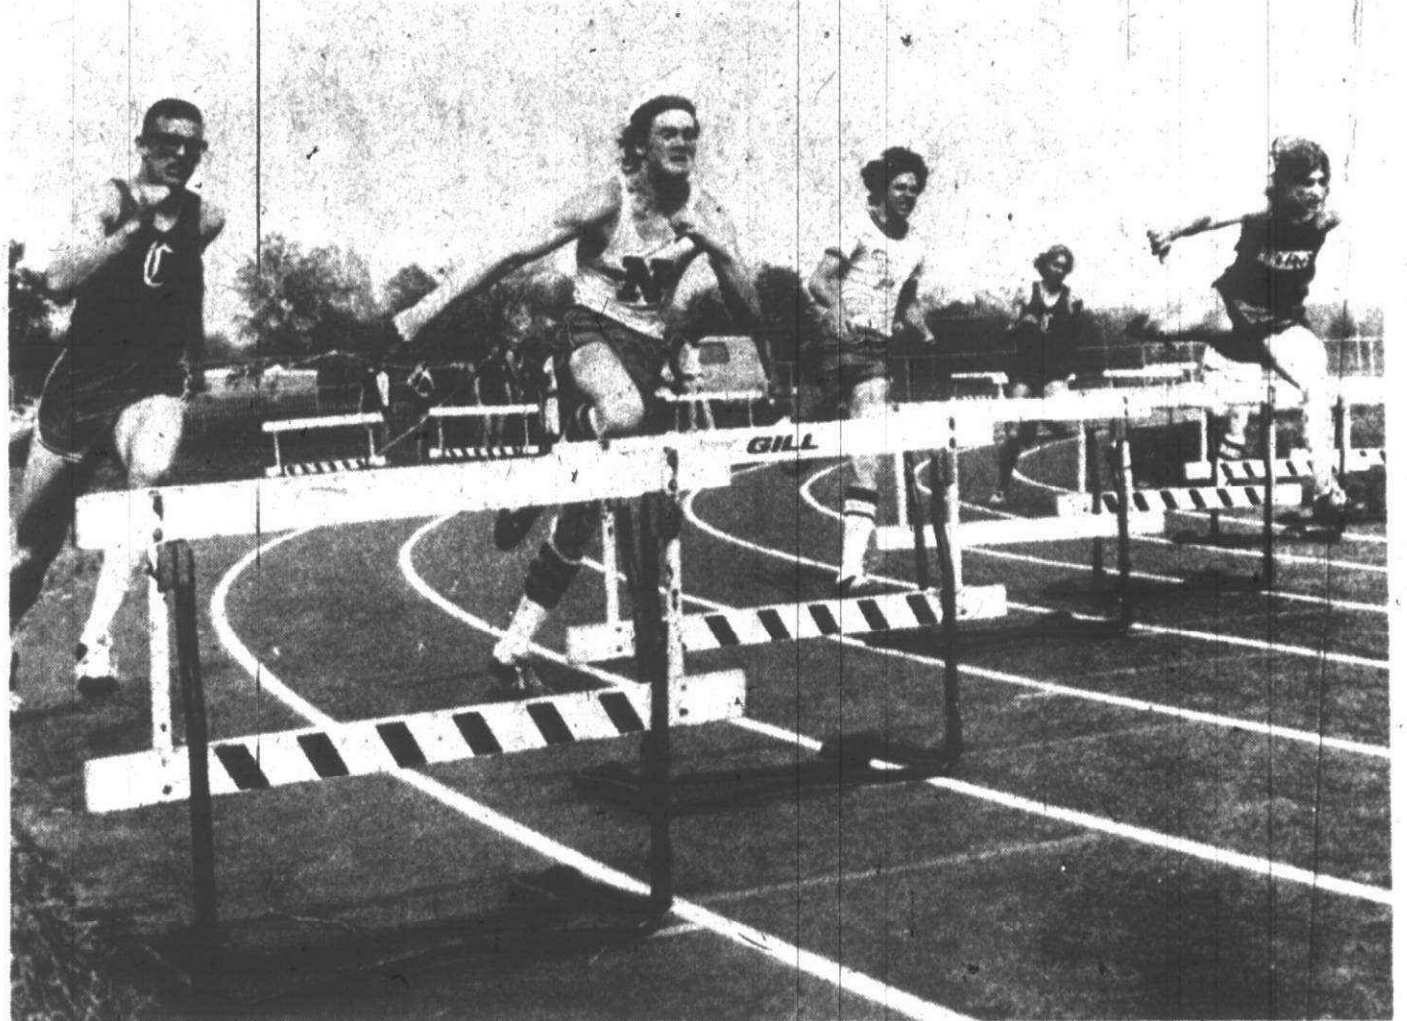

Sweazy grabbed an early lead in the mile and easily won the event in 4:22.9. John Glenn's Ted Unhold finished gamely to take second and East's Dennis Volz limped in third.

Kitze had more problems than he expected in the two-mile. Kitze, who has been clocked in less than 9:30 this season took the event in 9:50.4.

"He won the event, that's the important thing. I expect his time to improve at least 20 seconds at the state meet," said baffled East coach Brian Murphy after the race.

Chiefs oust Harrison, 11

It's Canton-East in Anders final

Junior catcher Tom Close drove in six runs, four on a third inning grand slam home run, as Plymouth Canton swamped Farmington Harrison 11-2 Saturday to advance into the finals of the 11th annual Les Anders tournament sponsored by the Livonia Rotary Club.

Canton will meet Garden City East in the finals of the tournament tonight in an 8 p.m. game at Livonia's Ford Field. East advanced to the finals when it beat Bishop Borgess in their semi-final contest two weeks ago.

The Canton-Harrison game was called after six innings when the Anders "mercy rule" went into effect against the Hawks. That rule states that any team which is ahead by seven or more runs at the end of any inning after the fifth automatically wins.

Few doubted that it would have made any difference in this case. Junior Bill Parson worked erratically in the first five innings for Canton but always had his stuff when it counted.

He was relieved in the sixth by Chris Martucci who threw bullets to the outmanned Harrison club, and the Hawks went down in order to finish the game.

OFFENSIVELY, THE CHIEFS had a field day and it was Close who did the most damage.

Keith Randazzo opened the third with a single up the middle. Scott Dunagan reached base when Harrison pitcher Dave Gottschalk mishandled his attempted sacrifice bunt.

After Martucci had fled out to deep left, top area hitter Brian Stemberger worked the count to 3-2 and then walked. Close looked at two wide pitches before digging in and slamming the next well beyond the 334 foot Ford Field leftfield fence.

Stemberger picked up an RBI in the fourth after Parson had singled to right and Martucci had walked. Stemberger's single went right up the middle driving in Parson. Martucci scored on the play also when the Hawk centerfielder misplayed the ball.

Harrison got one run back in the bottom of the fourth when Sam Pink unloaded a ground rule double and Ed Zarb hit a shot to right centerfield. The Hawks got another in the fifth on Pink's sacrifice fly.

The Chiefs wrapped things up in the sixth.

With one out Dunagan walked and moved to second on Martucci's single down the third baseline. Stemberger then hit what might have been a doubleplay ball to the second baseman. The second base umpire, however, deflected the ball in an effort to get out of the way of the hard grounder, loading the bases.

THIS TIME CLOSE jumped on the first pitch, smashing a vicious line drive single to left to score Dunagan, and Martucci. Verdugo then popped to deep second base and Stemberger tagged and scored as the Hawk catcher misplayed the throw.

Ed Parriseau, who had come in as a defensive replacement for Pink at first in the fifth, then doubled to left-center to score Close and Paul Major followed with a triple over the left fielder's head to drive in Parriseau.

Anders tourney finals tonight

Plymouth Canton, rated first in the area and in the state, will face off against Garden City East, rated second in the area, in tonight's final game of the 11th annual Les Anders tournament.

The final game will be played at Li-

Parson popped to short and Martucci then came in to close out the game.

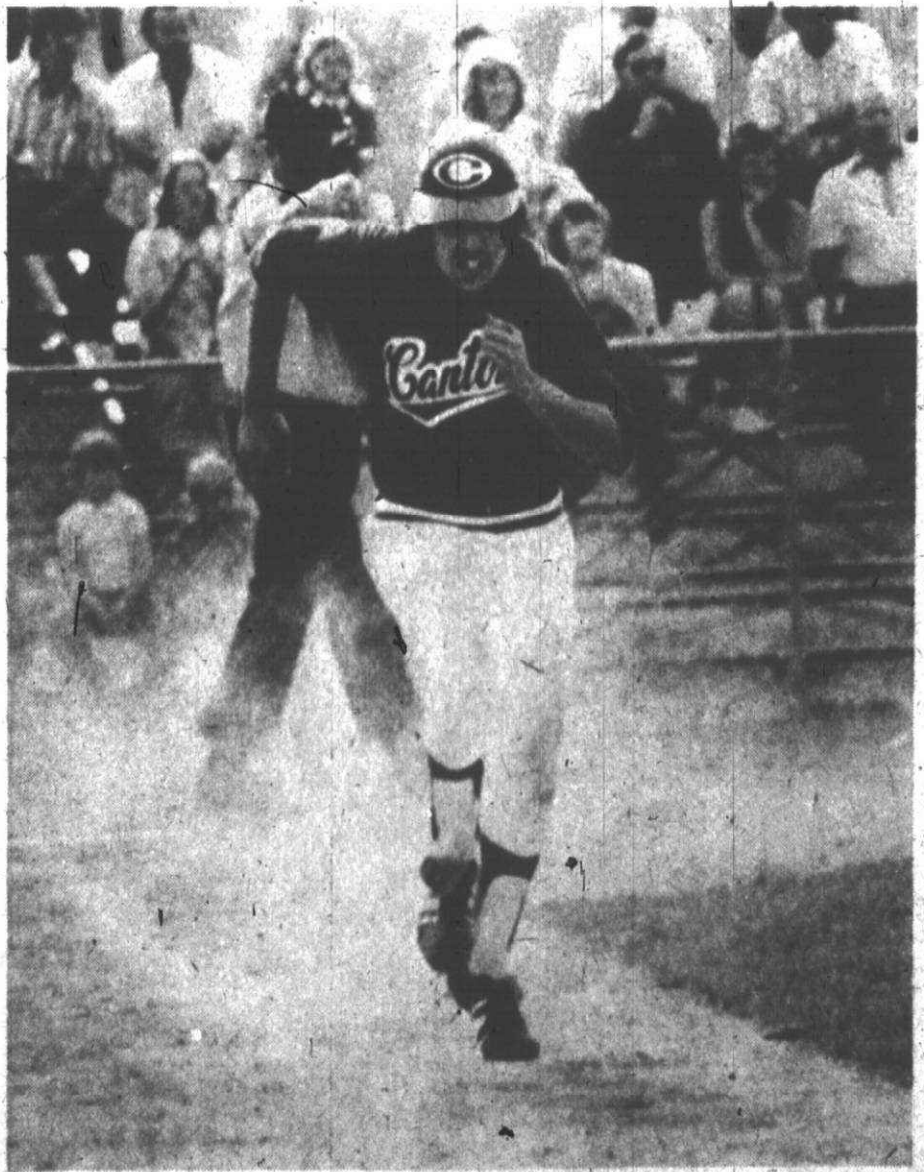

Canton coach Fred Crissey was non-committal about his starter for tonight's final game but indicated that either Parson or Martucci would get the nod.

"Garden City East is a fine ball club with a lot of pitching depth. This is the farthest any Plymouth team has ever gotten in the Anders and I'm just pleased to get into the finals," Crissey said.

Vigna gets Patriot football post

Armand Vigna, a veteran 10-year assistant coach at Livonia Franklin High School, was named to the head football coaching position at that school Friday.

Vigna replaces George Lovich who continues at Franklin in the capacity of athletic director. Lovich could not occupy both positions simultaneously and resigned his head coaching position. He will continue in the football program under Vigna.

Vigna, 39, is a resident of Livonia and plans no sweeping changes for the Patriots who ran up a 49-9-1 record under Lovich.

"Things will stay pretty much the same. I'll handle the offense and George will take the defense. My biggest problem will be maintaining the quality of the program he has established," Vigna said.

Vigna, who is the head of the counseling department at Franklin, said that he was looking forward to the challenge as head man.

"I've always wanted to be a head coach, but I didn't necessarily want to get the job under these circumstances (replacing Lovich)," he said.

Vigna is a graduate of the University of Michigan and has lived in Livonia 14 years.

Ties for league lead

Salem diamondmen top Trenton

Plymouth Salem stayed atop the Suburban Eight baseball race Friday when it took a 3-1 decision from Trenton.

The victory gave the Rocks an 8-3 league record and made them 12-5 overall. They are presently tied with Allen Park for league leadership.

Salem committed two errors in the first inning to allow Trenton its only run.

Salem played sloppily throughout the game and was particularly lax in its base running.

"With a 12-5 team, we shouldn't be making these mental errors at this point in the season," said Rock coach Wayne Sparkman.

Salem took the lead with two runs in the fourth.

John DenHouter walked. Tim Dillon was safe on an error and Dan Moore tied the game with an RBI single to leftfield. Moore overran third base on the play and was thrown out.

Vern Nagel then walked and Chuck Thomas drove in Moore with a solid hit.

Salem closed the scoring in the seventh when Dave Pierce singled, stole second and came home on Charlie Johnson's double down the rightfield line.

Thomas and Dan Moore combined for the win with Thomas the pitcher of record, raising his mark to 2-2.

Trojans end year with league sweep

Clarenceville finished its 1975 baseball campaign on a bright note last week, sweeping a pair of Wayne-Oakland League games.

On Wednesday the Trojans nipped West Bloomfield 6-5.

Clarenceville scored the winning run in the sixth on two walks, an error and a fielder's choice.

Chris Curtis went two-for-four to pace the Trojans offensively.

Jim Hill came on in the fifth to record the win in relief of Jim Mullins.

Friday's game was no contest as Clarenceville topped Clarkston 7-1.

Clarkston scored in the first on an error and a base hit but the Trojans grabbed the lead in the second when Mark McCammon singled, Dino Mastropietro walked, and Tony Phillips singled to centerfield scoring McCammon.

Jim Mullins then walked and Mastropietro scored on a fielder's choice.

West Bloomfield was its own worst enemy in the third when Clarenceville wrapped things up with a five run rally.

The Lakers issued five walks and Clarenceville added three hits in the inning. The big blow was Gary Juntunen's bases loaded, two-run single.

Although Clarenceville has no games remaining on its schedule, Trojan coach Del Cory indicated that he would seek other non-league games. Clarenceville is currently 11-8.

Spartans split pair on diamond

Livonia Stevenson kept its mathematically chances for an Inter-Lakes League baseball crown alive last week, topping Pontiac Northern 3-2 Wednesday and dropping a 7-5 decision to Walled Lake Central on Friday.

In the Wednesday game, Ray Waring stopped Northern on three hits.

Stevenson scored the deciding run in the seventh inning when Kyle Krug, running for Waring, raced home on Tom Pacion's ground ball.

Jim Snyder blasted a solo homer in the second to get the Spartans on the board and Stevenson tallied its other run in the third when John Kolis and Pacion both singled and Kolis came home on Tim Murphy's flyball to rightfield.

The Spartans got off to a good start in Friday's game when Rob Rose homered with Kolis aboard in the first, but Central came back for three runs in the first and four in the second and the Spartans could never catch up.

Stevenson rallied for two runs in the fifth when Pelli and Besh singled and came home on Jeff Bond's RBI hit and a fielder's choice.

Stevenson scored one in the sixth when Jim Treharne doubled and Jeff Bond advanced him on infield single. Rob Rose then scored Treharne on an error but Pacion hit a hard drive right to the centerfielder to end the rally.

BENTLEY — BELLEVILLE

Don Nelepka, who won three games in a five-day span last week, came through again for Livonia Bentley Friday as the Bulldogs took a 2-0 Suburban Eight baseball decision over Belleville.

Nalepka went the distance for Bentley, stopping Belleville on two hits to raise his season mark to 4-0.

Bentley scored a run in each of the first two innings.

Dan Dinsmore led off in the first with a double, moved to third on Glenn Stevens' bunt and came home on Mike Neville's long fly to centerfield.

Mike Robbins singled to lead off the second but was erased when Gary Gilchrist grounded to second base. The throw by the Belleville shortstop on the attempted double play, however, got beyond the first baseman and Gilchrist moved to second.

Tom Schultz followed with a solid hit to center to score Gilchrist.

Bentley is now 5-6 in the league and has won five of its last six encounters.

Canton diamond girls oust Bentley, 12-10

Plymouth Canton eliminated Livonia Bentley from the girls softball state high school tournament Friday 12-10.

The Chiefs rallied for four runs in the seventh inning to gain the victory which lifted their season mark to 6-4.

Ann Dozbush was the winning pitcher and also picked up two hits. Other Canton players to get two hits in the game included Jan Haarer, Kim Voladz and Barb Palmer.

Wednesday, the Canton girls ousted Walled Lake Western 16-15 when Haarer singled up the middle with one out in the seventh inning to drive in the winning run.

Cindy Kreig and Voladz each went three for four in that game.

Panthers bump Thurston for North Suburban lead

Garden City East grabbed the lead in the race for Northwest Suburban baseball honors Wednesday, downing front-running Thurston 4-1.

East is now 8-3 in the Northwest Suburban while Thurston dropped to 8-4.

Todd Kleinbrook took the win for East. Kleinbrook gave up three hits, struck out nine and walked four.

All scoring was in the fifth inning.

In the top of the fifth, Dan Hunter walked to lead off for Thurston. Hunter was sacrificed to second by Dave Beebe, and scored on a double by Dennis Litwinczuk.

In the bottom of the fifth Lew Willoughby doubled to lead off.

With two out, Kleinbrook singled to score Willoughby, advancing to second on Thurston error.

Wally Krol then singled scoring Kleinbrook and advanced on the throw to the plate. Jeff Edgar beat out an infield single moving Krol to third.

Joe Becsleco wrapped the scoring when he tripled to left-center field to score Krol and Edgar.

Batteries: Thurston—RODRIGUEZ and Beebe. East—KLEINBROOK and Ponte.

Ladywood girls divide pair

The Ladywood girls track team dropped a close three-way battle in a triangular meet Friday against Northville and Ypsilanti but rebounded to rout St. Mary of Redford Sunday.

The triangular action went right to the wire before Northville won the final event of the day, the 440 yard relay, to capture first place with 46 points. Ypsilanti finished second with 45 points and Ladywood was right there with 43.

Ladywood had the lead going into the relay after taking only four of a possible 33 points in the field events but bouncing back to dominate the running competition.

Freshman standout Sue Jarvis took firsts in the 440 and 880 yard runs and anchored the winning Ladywood mile relay team.

The St. Mary meet was strictly no contest as Ladywood took firsts in all 13 events to win 79-17.

Snyder Sports splits crucial doubleheader

Snyder's of Redford split its key doubleheader with arch-rival Little Caesars last week, then swept two games against Starvin' Marvin's to boost its record to 7-1 and remain tied with Little Caesars for first place in the West Division of the Major Metro Travel League.

Against Little Caesars, Snyder's rallied to win the first game, 29-28, scoring eight runs in the bottom of the seventh inning, the final two crossing the plate on a bases-loaded, two-out double by Dave Rhodes. Rhodes and Doug Gerdes each belted three homers in the game, with Rhodes totaling 9 RBI's and Gerdes 10.

Little Caesars, however, took the nightcap, 14-12, putting the game away on a three-run homer by Jim Puckett in the top of the seventh. Jim Mitchell homered twice for Snyder's and batted in half his team's runs.

Starvin' Marvin's provided little opposition, as Snyder's romped 18-7 and 19-3. Tom Louria knocked home three runs in the opener, and John Hinds duplicated that performance in the second game.

Mitchell continued to wield a hot bat for Jim Snyder's club, hitting seven homers and batting in 14 runs for the week to boost his totals for eight games to 14 HR's and 34 RBI.

FROM 8 TO 80 FUN FOR EVERYONE

YOUNGSTERS of all ages have taken up bicycling as a means of transportation as well as a favorite recreation.

Diana Blue, a clerk in the Sporting Goods department at our Ionia Thrifty Acres will be glad to show you the latest bicycle equipment.

BICYCLING is a great way to travel. It's not expensive, it's pollution-free, it's good exercise, and it's fun! Observing the following safety rules can help make your bicycling trips safe and enjoyable.

- (1) Know and obey traffic rules.
- (2) Ride single file in the same direction, keep to the right and follow traffic.
- (3) Ride defensively
- (4) Give pedestrians the right of way on crosswalks and avoid riding on sidewalks.
- (5) Use a head lamp and rear reflectors on your bike if you ride at night.
- (6) Don't stunt ride or hitch rides from moving vehicles.
- (7) Don't carry items that hamper your steering or block your vision.
